Nebola by to AQUA, keby na nej nebolo veľa vody. A neboli by sme skautmi, keby sme ju neuvítali zo všetkých strán! Zdola, zhora, pod ostrým uhlom z ľavého boku. O-lé!

Prvý deň sme zahájili skutočne symbolicky – vo vodnom prostredí (...siahajúcim ož do topánok, prosím!). Po ustálení búrky v dunajských meandroch a vysokej tráve, na piesku a tráve a tichom kanáli, v zákutiach nášho veľkomesta, v tajuplnom mikrosvete. Bez vetra sa ani lístok nepohnie – tak by znalo motto dňa. Spoločnými silami sme sa dostali zas o kúsok bližšie k dávnemu pokladu. A zároveň hlásime, že nemáme v táborku ani jednu metlu. Ale zato dosť špagátu!

Och, a aby sme nezabudli.... koniec dobrý, všetko dobré. Pod taktovkou majstra Šerpa a evergreenovej bluegrassovej kapely Grass Device sme v rytme benja, gitary a tepu sŕdc premenili jedáleň na rozpálený parket. Belgičák, Päta-špička, motýlik a raz, dva, tri! Tak schválne, ktorí z vás si prešúchali podrážky?

Počuli ste o reštaurácii, ktorú otvorili na mesiaci?

Majú tam výborné jedlo, ale nanič atmosféru.

It wouldn't be AQUA if there wasn't a lot of water on it. And we wouldn't be scouts if we didn't welcome her from all sides! From below, from above, at an acute angle from the left side. Olé!

We started the first day really symbolically - in a watery environment (...up into our shoes, please!). After the storm settled in the Danube meanders and tall grass, on sand and grass and the quiet channel, in the corners of metropolis, in the mysterious microworld. Without the wind, not even a leaf moves - that would be the motto of the day. Together, we got a little closer to the ancient treasure. And at the same time we can report that we not a single broom can be found in the campsite. But we do have enough twine!

Oh, and lest we forget... all's well that ends well. Under the baton of master Šerpo and the evergreen bluegrass band Grass Device, we turned the canteen into a heated parquet floor, dancing to the rhythm of the banjo, guitar and heartbeats. Belgian dance, Pointe Heel, butterfly and One, and Two, and Three! So, anyways, which of danced their boots off?

Have you heard about the restaurant on the moon?
They've got great food, but no atmosphere.
